

5. Without prejudice to the legal provisions in force regarding the processing of personal data and the publicity of the administration, the undersigned obligates himself/herself:
 - 5.1. to use the information derived from the aforementioned archive documents for the sole purpose of research mentioned above and not to collect, conserve, process and publish any information in any form or manner whatsoever that could harm the interests of the persons concerned or any other living person.
 - 5.2. not to publish or use any parts of the aforementioned archive documents that
 - could harm the interests of the State and the State Security;
 - could harm the fundamental economic and financial interests of the State and of other public-law body;
 - disturb public order and safety;
 - hinder the inspection, control and supervision by or on behalf of the public authorities;
 - prejudice the confidentiality of trade, business or industrial secrets forasmuch as they have been communicated to the public authorities on a confidential basis
6. The undersigned also declares abiding by all legal provisions in force regarding copyrights and related rights and that he/she will not cause prejudice to any holder of rights.
7. The authorisation is individually granted to the sole applicant.

Done at _____, on _____

Signature of the applicant:

Decision of the archivist (name)

Authorisation to consult

Refusal (motivated)

Date:

Signature